

At Confession

You can take this leaflet in with you to Confession. If there is a choice, you may kneel behind the grille so that the priest cannot see you. (Even if you were taught to go face to face when you were younger.)

Begin by making the sign of the cross with the priest.

Then you can speak in your own words or you can say:

Bless me Father for I have sinned.
My last confession was ... ago (say roughly how long)
and these are my sins.

Now tell your sins simply in your own words. When you have finished, let the priest know. You can use these words if you wish:

I am sorry for all these sins and for any that I cannot now remember

The priest will now talk to you and ask you to do a penance.

You can ask him questions if you want. He will ask you to say an act of contrition (act of sorrow). Here is one that you can say.

O my God, because you are so good,
I am very sorry that I have sinned against you and by the help of your grace
I will not sin again. Amen.

Wait while the priest says the prayer of "absolution" (where Christ forgives you all your sins.) Make the sign of the cross as the priest says:

I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father ✠ and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

After Confession

If the priest asked you to say some prayers for your penance, say these now.

Say a prayer to thank God for forgiving your sins. Make up your mind to try and love God with all your heart and soul and mind and to try and love your neighbour as yourself. Here is a prayer you can say if you wish O God, I thank you for forgiving me my sins.

I will try now to love you with all my heart and soul and mind and I will try to love others too.
Help me by your grace.

Remember to come to Confession often so that you can meet Jesus and receive his grace. We can think of grace as the "sunshine of the soul".

The Sacrament of Confession

a guide for adults

This leaflet is designed to help you to prepare and celebrate the Sacrament of Penance.

You may take a copy home to keep if you wish

Before Confession

Before you receive the sacrament, spend some time preparing yourself in mind and heart. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to celebrate the sacrament well.

Next make a careful “examination of conscience”. To do that, think carefully about your life and the things for which you need forgiveness. There is some more information on the next page.

When you have thought of the sins you need to confess, say another prayer to make the best use of the sacrament. Here is one you can say if you wish:

Merciful God, I humbly thank you for your loving kindness to me at all times, especially your patience and long-suffering with me, a wretched sinner. Bad as I am, it is thanks to your great mercy that I have not fallen further away from you by committing even more serious sins, and that I have not been called to judgement to answer for my sinful life. O my God, I beg you to receive me back now as I struggle to return to you. I earnestly desire to be truly sorry for my sins, and to use the time given to me in the future to try to make up for the sins I have committed in the past.

Give me light, O my God, to see what sins I have committed since my last confession, and the grace humbly to confess them. I ask you to help me to be truly sorry for them. Grant me perfect sorrow so that I may obtain forgiveness for all my sins.

Examination of conscience

First try to remember how long it is since you last went to Confession. You only need to remember roughly how long it is.

Then ask yourself how you have offended God by any sins against him and by any sins against others. You can use the following questions if they help you but remember it is your confession and you need to think how you personally have sinned and how you personally need God’s help.

It has been a long time...

If it is a long time since your last confession, do not worry—the priest is very used to this. Just tell him that it is a long time (say roughly how long) and he will help you to make a good confession.
